All which Addreſſes his Majeſty was pleas'd to receive very graciouſly.

Conſtantinople, Aug. 14. 1714. The Swediſh Envoy M. Groothuyſen arrived here the 2d of this Month, and a few Days after had a Conference with the Grand Vizier, who began the Diſcourſe by telling him, that his King having formerly declared at three ſeveral Times an Intention to go back to his own Dominions, and ſoon after changed his Mind, it was to be doubted whether his preſent Diſpoſition to depart were better fixed and ſure to have Effect. The Envoy anſwered, that his Swediſh Majeſty was now abſolutely determined, and therefore earneſtly deſired the Sultan's Leave, and to be furniſhed by the Port with what was neceſſary for his Journey. The Vizier, to prevent the demanding of Money, ſaid, that whenever the King would ſet out, the Port would furniſh him with Horſes, Carriages, and Proviſions; the Sultan, notwithſtanding the Laws forbid Muſſelmen to help Chriſtians with Money, having out of peculiar Regard to his Swediſh Majeſty's Perſon already ſupplied him ſufficiently. To which the Envoy replied, that the King had commanded him to ſollicit a Sum, but not to uſe over-much Importunity for obtaining it. The 10th M. Groothuyſen was admitted to an Audience of the Grand Signior. The 13th a general Council was held in the Vizier's Houſe, at which the Principal Eccleſiaſticks, with the Civil and Military Officers, aſſiſted. The Vizier acquainted them with what he had tranſacted, to the Advantage of the Port, with the Czar and with Poland; and that the King of Sweden had asked Permiſſion to leave this Country and to return home through Hungary: That he (the Vizier) had ſent for M. Fleiſchman the Emperor's Reſident, and demanded whether the Emperor would let the King of Sweden paſs freely through his Dominions; and that the Reſident had aſſured him his Imperial Majeſty would, as well becauſe he was in Amity with that Prince, as more eſpecially becauſe he would gladly in this Inſtance oblige the Port, and that he the ſaid Reſident would be anſwerable for the Event. Hereupon the Council were unanimous for his Swediſh Majeſty's being allowed to depart, ſeeing the Emperor's Miniſter had given ſuch poſitive Aſſurances that free Paſſage would be granted him. So to Morrow M. Groothuyſen will be admitted to an Audience of Leave of the Sultan, and in two or three Days will be diſpatched with a Letter to the King his Maſter; in which Letter it will be ſignified that his Majeſty may depend upon being furniſhed with Horſes, Carriages, and Proviſions neceſſary for the Journey; and it is very probable a Sum of Mony will be added. The 12th arrived here General Poniatowski, who went lately to Deux-ponts, and from thence returned to Demir-toca, whither 'tis ſuppos'd he will go back with M. Groothuyſen. The Port has fixed the 4th of of September, O. S. for the King of Sweden's Departure, if nothing intervene that may occaſion a further Delay. Two Capighi-Basthas, ſome Chiauxes, and a certain Number of Janiſaries, are to attend his Majeſty to the Frontiers of the Emperor's Territories. The Ambaſſador of Poland is to have his Audience of Leave of the Sultan the 17th Inſtant; and the Ruſſian Miniſters expect theirs in a little time.

Vienna Sep. 29. N. S. Letters from Conſtantinople of the 25th paſt relate, that Baron Schapfiroff was on his Departure from thence, with his Collegues the Czar's Ambaſſadors, the Limits between the Ruſſian and Ottoman Empires having been ſettled to the mutual Satisfaction of the Port and of his Czarian Majeſty. The ſame Letters confirming the King of Sweden's Reſolution to leave Turkey very ſoon, the Emperor has nominated two Lieutenant-Generals, the Counts d'Althan and de Wilzeck to receive and compliment his Majeſty on the Frontiers of Tranſylvania, and thence to accompany him with a Guard of 300 Men: But that Prince having not yet ſignify'd what time he propoſes to arrive in Tranſylvania, thoſe Generals forbear going thither, 'till certain Advice comes, of his having actually ſet out: In the mean while M. Bourghard Secretary of War is diſpatched to the Count de Stainville Governour of Tranſylvania, with Inſtructions touching the Honours to be paid to his Swediſh Majeſty in his Paſſage.

Genoa, October 2. N S. The 30th paſt arrived here his Majeſty's Ships Rumney and Kinſale, which came with the King and Queen of Sicily to Villa-Franca. The ſame Afternoon arrived here the Spaniſh Gallies, accompanied by thoſe of this Republick, with the new Queen of Spain. Her Majeſty landing, was conducted to S. Pietro d'Arena, where a Palace was fitted up, and provided for her Reception but the Day before, it not being known ſooner that ſhe deſigned to touch here. She was ſo Sick in coming from Seſtri, tho' it be but thirty Miles from thence hither, and the Sea was not rough, that ſhe is reſolved to proceed for Spain by Land.

Paris, October, 13. N S. The Advices from Barcelona of the 18th paſt import, that when the laſt Aſſault was made the 11th, divers Prieſts and Monks of the Place ſignalized themſelves, eſpecially one named Don Antonio, who was killed in the Breach, and being extremely lamented by the Inhabitants, his Body was ſought out, and Interred the 12th with great Solemnity. The Beſieged would have diſputed every Foot of Ground, and maintained their Intrenchments behind the Breaches much better, had they not been attacked when they leaſt expected it, for they did not imagine the Aſſault would have been given before the Mines were ſprung. They ſhewed the utmoſt Reſolution however in recovering the Baſtion of St. Peter, and in contending to keep it, as well as in other Actions of that Day, which coſt them four of their chief Leaders killed, and three (viz. the Marquis de Villaroel, Dalmau and Romana) wounded. The 12th at Noon they ſurrendred, after their Deputies (who went out the Evening before) had with the greateſt Difficulty been brought to ſubmit their Priviledges to the King's Diſcretion, upon promiſe of having their Lives ſpared, and that they ſhould not be plundered. The Marſhal Berwick has ſince cauſed the People to be diſarmed, and three Decrees to be Publiſhed, by which he has diſſolved the Deputation, the Military Arm, and the Magiſtracy or City-Corporation; ſubſtituting in their room fifteen Perſons devoted to the Court, who proceed in their Adminiſtration by new Rules. Cardona, the only fortified Place left in the Poſſeſſion of the Catalonians, has ſurrendred on the ſame Conditions as Barcelona. Thirty five Battalions of French are to remain in Catalonia to keep the People in awe, till the Laws and Forms of Government of Caſtile be introduced, and eſtabliſhed in that Province. The Marſhal Berwick, for his many eminent Services to the Crown of Spain, has had a Yearly Penſion of 100000 Livres ſettled upon him by his Catholick Majeſty.

Hamburg, October 9. N. S. Letters from Petersbourg relate, that the Czar made his Entry there the 20th paſt with great Magnificence, being attended to the Place of landing by the Gallies, and other Veſſels which he took from the Swedes: They add, that after the Entry his Czarian Majeſty being in full Council, was ſaluted with the Title of Vice-Admiral, for the Services in which he diſtinguiſhed himſelf perſonally this Campaign by Sea; and having accepted that Character, he will act in it when he goes to Sea again. His Czarian Majeſty treats his Swediſh Priſoner Rear-Admiral Ehrenſchild with great Generoſity and Kindneſs, cauſing him to be lodged in his own Palace. The Ruſſian Fleet is returned to Cranſlot. 'Tis adviſed from Warſaw, that the King of Poland arrived there the 22d of laſt Month; and that his Majeſty has judged it neceſſary for his Service, to ſend Order to the Saxon Troops, who were actually on their March out of the Kingdom, to halt. The Swediſh Troops in Pomerania are increaſed to a conſiderable Body. The Court of Berlin (as our laſt Letters from thence ſay) being informed that 19 Squadrons, and 14 Battallions of Heſſians, with the Swedes lately come into the Country from Deux-ponts, deſigned to paſs over the Pruſſian Territories to Pomerania, General Natzmar is ſent to the Frontiers with 15 Regiments of that King's Troops to obſerve their Motions. Diſpoſitions are likewiſe made in the Electorate of Hanover, upon the ſame Occaſion. 'Tis adviſed from Copenhagen, that the King of Denmark will ſhortly return to Holſtein, to be nearer at Hand to oppoſe the Swedes in Pomerania, in caſe they make any attempt upon the arrival of their King. We have alſo Advice from other Parts, that divers great Potentates deſign to write jointly to his Swediſh Majeſty, as ſoon as he has left Turkey, to exhort him to conſent to the ſetting a Negotiation on Foot, for terminating the War in the North.

Bruſſels,

Bruſſels, October 13. N. S. M. Van der Duſſen, Geckinga, Geldermalſen, and the Count de Rechteren, Deputies from the States-General of the United Provinces, for regulating the Barrier and Commerce in the Spaniſh Netherlands, arrived the 1ſt of this Month at Antwerp. Baron Heemes, the Emperor's Envoy Extraordinary at the Hague, came to Antwerp at the ſame time, in order to confer with Count Konigſeck. Deputies from the ſeveral Provinces of the Spaniſh Netherlands repaired thither likewiſe, purſuant to the circular Letter ſent to the States of each Province by that Count, and having delivered Memorials to him, concerning the Intereſts of their reſpective Provinces, are ſince returned home. The 4th the firſt Conference was held in the Town-Houſe at Antwerp, between the Imperial and Dutch Plenipotentiaries. The 5th they met again, and on the 6th had a third Conference; which ended, Count Konigſeck diſpatched an Expreſs to Vienna, and the States Deputies ſent another to the Hague.

Hague, October 12. N. S. The 4th Inſtant the Ratifications of the Treaty of Peace and Commerce between the Crown of Spain and this Republick, were Exchanged at the Earl of Strafford's Houſe, by the Duke d'Oſſuna, and the Marquis de Monteleon on the one Part, and the Baron de Renſwoude on the other; the French Ambaſſador, the Marquis de Chateauneuf being likewiſe preſent. The ſame Day M. Klingraff, the Brunſwick Reſident, was with the Earl of Strafford, to inform his Excellency, that the Princeſs of Wales propoſed to ſet out from Hanover the 9th inſtant, and to arrive here the 17th; before which time 'tis expected the Yachts will be returned on this ſide to take on Board her Royal Highneſs. The Marquis de Monteleon having received Orders to go to the Court of Great Britain, in Quality of Ambaſſador Extraordinary, and Plenipotentiary of the King of Spain, ſet out Yeſterday Morning for Utrecht, deſigning to proceed from thence to England by the way of Calais.
